Antique 19th Century Danish Biedermeier Mahogany Secretary Desk

This stunning Biedermeier secretary was crafted in Denmark during a peak era known for high quality furniture craftsmanship. Enlarge photos to appreciate the beauty of the wood, note the curve of each door and how the carved elements and turned columns accent the overall stately appeal of this remarkable piece. The top features a convex center door flanked by spiral columns with smaller concave doors on the sides. The lower cabinet has 3 drawers below the cylinder roll and a pull out writing surface. Take time to enlarge the photos to view the extraordinary details of the drawers and doors inside the desk. This remarkable desk has been professionally restored, it is ready to be placed, used and enjoyed.
