Early 20th Century Antique Original Blue Painted Bench from Romania

This delightful bench still maintains its original blue paint with a whimsical array of flowers and flourishes in the traditional folk art style of the era. The bright colors of red, yellow and blue were favorites in Romania, and their exuberant painting style still brings joy today. The age related separation of planks seen along the back and seat have not impact on strength or stability. This bench has been professionally restored, waxed and is ready to be used and enjoyed. Any wear to the finish, nicks or scratches are simply signs of generations of use that add to the vintage character of this charming bench.
