Rustic Coffee Table with Peg Legs, Hungary circa 1900's

The appeal of this coffee table comes from the rustic wood top that originally served as a work table and rests on original thick peg legs.

The many scratches, nicks, deep gouges, stains and old cracks that all combine to build the depth of character which create the desire to touch it.

Notice the legs are slightly darker than the top. When viewed from the side, ends appear wedge shaped while top remains level.

This coffee table has been restored and sanded so it is strong, stable and ready to use and enjoy.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
