Rustic 20th Century Short Pine Side Table

Rustic 20th century short side table, crafted in pine. The table stands on four square legs joined by a simple trestle surround base, giving it a straightforward and useful form. The top shows rustic wear with residual wormhole distress (old and dried, no longer active), though it has left some deeper gouges that contribute to the worn character of the piece. Minor separation of planks, scratches, and gouges further add to the rustic feel. Old repair to crack along left leg of one side. Restored strong, stable, and ready to use. Wax finish. Age related wear does not impact function.
