20th Century Vintage Dressmaker's Mannequin Covered in Old Newspaper

This vintage dress/suit form is perfect for displaying dressed up or simply as a fun vintage accent. An additional feature of the mannequin is the black painted wood tripod base with decorative finials. The body is covered with old newspaper clippings and shows expected signs of wear, staining, torn paper, etc all expected in an authentic display item that has been used for over 70 years. The black wood stand shows chipped paint, distress/wear, etc. This mannequin is stable and level.
