Late 18th Century German Rococo Inlaid Chest of Three Drawers

This 18th century rococo chest of drawers is accented with contrasting inlaid mahogany and walnut trim along the top, sides and three drawer fronts.

The commode has been restored, case is sturdy and drawers are in working order. Large brass rings serve as drawer pulls. Large skeleton key is included as accent (although it does function in middle drawer).

Note old cracks along top, sides, inside drawers, etc. See photos of back for view of old repairs along feet, etc.

All scratches, cracks, dings, stains and age related separation are reflective of over 150 years of use and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this handsome chest of three drawers.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
