19th Century Danish Mahogany Tall Secretary Bureau

19th century Danish tall secretary bureau, crafted in mahogany with burlwood veneer. The upper section features three doors with concave and convex shaping, while the hinged desktop opens to reveal a decorative interior fitted with small drawers and storage.

The interior includes a central cubby flanked by columns with applied brass figural accents. Small finials at the top are backed by a mirror.

Old locks work inconsistently; we recommend using the included keys as pulls for the cabinet doors and drawers. This secretary has been restored, is stable, and ready for use. Typical age related cracks to the veneer, along with some nicks and scratches, are seen throughout.

The right side shows more visible cracks to the veneer with signs of old repairs.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
