

Early 19th Century Swedish Gustavian Original Gray Painted Pine Side Table

Early 19th century Swedish Gustavian side table crafted in pine with an oak drawer. The drawer features traditional horizontal fluted carving. The table stands on tapered fluted legs topped with applied carved floral medallions.

The original gray painted finish has been scraped and heavily distressed through years of use, revealing the natural wood beneath.

The drawer bottom shows separation of planks and cracks. Typical age-related cracks, nicks, and scratches are visible along the top and throughout but do not impact function.

The table has been restored and is stable and ready to use.
