19th Century Swedish Black Painted Pine Armchairs

Pair of 19th century Swedish armchairs crafted in pine. The chairs feature a newer black painted finish, distressed to suit the age and style of the frames.

Curved rococo arms and backs give the pair a strong profile, while a turned stretcher base and simple carved details at the skirt and legs add classic Scandinavian character.

Age-related separation and some cracks are visible along both seats. Minor cracks and scratches are present throughout.

The pair has been restored and is strong, stable, and ready to use.
