19th Century Pine Shop Counter with Rustic Reclaimed Top for Kitchen Island

This impressive freestanding island will be the gathering place in any kitchen. This versatile piece originally served as a grocer's shop counter in the 1800's and is finished on all four sides.

The front area served as storage with 3 drawers and open shelving, while the other three sides are paneled.

The reclaimed heavy thick top is made from boxcar flooring (from a train/railroad cart) and compliments the warm aged pine of the shop counter base.

All scratches, cracks, dings, and age-related separation are reflective of age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this one-of-a-kind kitchen island.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
