Early 19th Century Swedish Gold Giltwood Neoclassical Mirror

Early 19th century Swedish neoclassical mirror crafted in giltwood. The frame features a burnished gold gilt finish with a slightly aged surface. Decorative carved elements along the crown and applied floral carving along the base. Half columns flank the mirror on each side with cross-form accents. The mirror plate is original and composed of two sections, typical of the period. The surface shows age-related nicks, scratches, and minor abrasions, including visible wear along the upper left section. Old repairs seen at corners. The mirror is solid, stable, and ready to hang. Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
