Early 19th Century Swedish Gold Giltwood Mirror with Laurel Wreath Crest

Early 19th century Swedish mirror crafted in giltwood with a richly aged gold gilt finish showing subtle burgundy undertones. The frame is defined by dramatic half columns flanking a beveled mirror plate. The upper section features a carved laurel wreath crest, while the lower skirt includes additional applied decorative carving. The gilt surface shows typical age-related wear including cracks, nicks, and scuffs. Minor separation of wood and small surface imperfections are visible but do not detract from the overall presentation. The mirror is solid, stable, and ready to hang.
