Pair, Early 20th Century Portuguese Walnut Small Cabinets or Nightstands

Pair of early 20th century Portuguese small cabinets or nightstands crafted in walnut. Each piece features a single upper drawer over two small cabinet doors.

The cabinets are raised on decorative carved cabriole legs, giving the pair a slender profile with strong classical character. Elaborate brass drawer pulls provide easy access and add visual weight to the smaller scale.

The tops show older repaired gouges and cracks. Additional cracks, gouges, and nicks are visible throughout, along with age-related separation of planks along the sides and backs.

The pair has been restored and is strong, stable, and ready to use. Despite their compact scale, they offer strong visual impact.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
