19th Century Green Painted Pine Bench from Hungary

Rustic green painted pine bench from Hungary, perfect for an informal country look.

The mint green and white layers of paint have been worn and distressed in areas revealing the natural pine below, all adding to the character of the bench. The back has been more recently painted to finish the look.

Restored, the legs and seat are strong, bench is stable and ready for use.

While distress/wear is seen throughout the bench, all scratches, cracks, dings, and age related separation (see bench seat) are reflective of age and do not detract from the appeal nor function of this country pine bench.

Seat Height: 19.75"
