Early 20th Century English Vintage Red Leather Square Club Chair

Early 20th century vintage square club chair upholstered in red leather. This handsome chair features a tufted button back and sides, with brass nail head trim throughout creating a classic contrast against the rich red leather. It is raised on hardwood legs and sits low with a comfortable profile. The leather shows scuffs and scratches from age and use, though it remains in overall good vintage condition with beautiful red coloring. The arms show slight color variation due to use. A removable seat cushion adds practicality to the form. A handsome vintage chair with strong color and classic club chair appeal.
