

19th Century Carved Oak Wall Shelf with Boar's Head and Griffins

19th century carved wall shelf from Portugal, crafted in dark oak. Extensive hand carved decoration includes a central boar's head flanked by two griffins. Three carved panels feature additional ornamentation, giving the shelf strong architectural presence and dramatic old-world character.

The shelf surface measures approximately three inches deep. A groove along the central section allows plates or other decorative objects to be displayed easily. Typical age-related scratches, nicks, and minor stains are visible but do not affect function. Solid, stable, and ready to hang. Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
