Early 20th Century Rustic Hungarian Coffee Table

The appeal of this rustic coffee table comes from the thick wood top that originally served as a worktable, all resting firmly on slightly splayed peg legs.

The slab of wood that serves as the top is impressive with cracks, gouges, stains, and scrapes that all combine to build depth of character. Note the legs are a darker brown, contrasting with the natural hardwood top.

This coffee table has been restored so it is strong, stable and ready to use and enjoy. Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition, and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting all impact how item is viewed. Photos are part of item description, please ask questions or request additional photos of specific areas if needed.
