Pair of 20th Century Danish Vintage Brown Leather Wingback Club Chairs

Pair of 20th century Danish wingback club chairs upholstered in vintage brown leather. Classic wingback forms, rolled arms, and nail head trim throughout give the chairs a traditional appearance, while years of use have developed a rich patina across the leather.

The two chairs show noticeable variation in color, with one presenting considerably darker than the other. Both display extensive vintage wear, including scuffing, crackling, staining, scratches, and distress throughout the leather. The lighter chair shows the heavier wear, including areas of leather loss and minor tears (present but less so in darker chair). Considerable crackling and distress are also visible along the arms of both chairs.

Both wing-back chairs sit low and are sold in original vintage condition. Seat height: 16"
