Pair of 20th Century Danish Vintage Leather Club Chairs

Pair of 20th century Danish club chairs upholstered in vintage brown leather with a design reminiscent of Otto Schulz. Decorative nail head trim accents the leather and continues along the hardwood feet, giving the chairs a distinctive tailored appearance.

The seat cushions and back pillows are upholstered in original crushed vintage caramel colored velvet, adding warmth and textural contrast to the brown leather. Aged trim is now tattered. These used upholstered elements can easily be replaced at the buyer's discretion if a different fabric is preferred.

The vintage leather displays characteristic wear from years of use, including crackling and discoloration along the arms, scratches, stains and scuffs throughout. One chair has a tear at the front left corner, while smaller scuffs are visible around the front cushion area and seams of both chairs. The hardwood feet also show typical surface wear.

Sold in original vintage condition. Seat height: 18"
