Pair of 20th Century Danish Oxblood Leather Chesterfield Wingback Club Chairs

Pair of 20th century Danish Chesterfield wingback club chairs upholstered in vintage tufted leather with a rich reddish-brown to oxblood tone. Deep button tufting and brass nail head trim give the chairs a classic Chesterfield appearance, while variation in the aged leather creates considerable depth of color throughout. The backs and seats appear darker than the arms and sides, with additional darker coloration around the tufted buttons and variation along the front seat edges. Brass nail head trim continues throughout the chairs and complements the warm leather tones.

Visible wear is present throughout the vintage leather, particularly along the arms where separation and cracking have developed. Additional cracking and distress are visible along the front edges of the seats, with scuffs, scratches, impressions and wear along the leather seams and other areas. The chairs rest on hardwood frames and sit low and snug.

Sold in original vintage condition. Stable and ready for use. Sit low and snug.

Seat height: 15"
