Large 20th Century French Oak Dining Table With Thick Top Trestle Base from France

Large oak dining table from France with impressive carved trestle base, double legs at the ends and thick top.
The decorative curved ends allow ample seating space to pull a chair up/under at each end of the table.
Restored, strong and stable this dining table is just under 10' long and ready to be used and enjoyed.
Visible cracks along the legs and top. Age-related separation seen in top where sections of wood are joined together creating an attractive pattern.
All old cracks, nicks, scratches, stains and age-related separation of wood is reflective of age and add to the authentic vintage appeal of this impressive dining table.
