Free Standing Pine Apothecary Counter with 64 Drawers, Kitchen Island circa 1900's

Fun and function abound in this free standing pine apothecary with 64 drawers. This delightful apothecary originally served as a shop counter or storage cabinet. Counters similar to this were used throughout shops in the European during the 1800's, and are a great find today as a way to incorporate old world charm and craftsmanship into a modern home whether for a crafts room, kitchen island, even to store fishing lures/flyes.

This pine counter ready to be used as it has been professionally restored, drawers function and it has been given a wax finish. Any nicks, scratches, distress and signs of wear are due to generations of use and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this pine apothecary.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
